

The Penn State Action Club

Interactive Seminars in Motor Control and Coordination

Starting Time: Fridays, 3.30 - 5.00 p.m.

Meeting Place: 276 Rec Hall: Conference Room

Organized by: Dagmar Sternad and Mark Latash

List of Speakers in Fall 2003:

- September 5* Marcos Duarte (Univ of Sao Paolo, Brazil)
September 19 Robert Full (Berkeley)*
October 3 Paola Cesari (Univ of Verona, Italy)
October 10 Bob Sainburg (Penn State)
October 24 Andy Gordon (Columbia University)
November 14 David Rosenbaum (Penn State)
November 21 John Soechting (Univ of Minnesota)*
December 5 Phil Martin (Penn State)

The seminar will provide a forum for indepth discussions of issues on motor control and coordination. It is interdisciplinary in nature, perspectives ranging from biomechanics, neurophysiology, psychology to philosophy. The sessions are aimed to be informal and highly interactive with no preset time limits. Speakers will have 10 minutes of uninterrupted presenting time. Thereafter, they may and should be interrupted whenever questions arise.

After the meeting there will be a gathering in honor of the speaker where food and drink is provided. Graduate students are encouraged to attend and to participate.

* This speaker will also give a talk at the departmental colloquium