

The Penn State Action Club

Interactive Seminars in Motor Control and Coordination

Starting Time: Fridays, 3.30 - 5.00 p.m.

Meeting Place: Water Tower

Organized by: Dagmar Sternad and Mark Latash

List of Speakers in Spring 2004:

- January 16* Randy Flanagan (Queen's Univ, Ontario)
January 23 Heiko Wagner (Univ of Jena, Germany)
February 13 Phil Martin (Penn State)
February 27 Chris Rahn (Penn State)
April 9 Francisco Valero-Cuevas (Cornell Univ)
April 16 Todd Pataky (Penn State)
April 23 Amy Bastian (Johns Hopkins University)*

The seminar will provide a forum for indepth discussions of issues on motor control and coordination. It is interdisciplinary in nature, perspectives ranging from biomechanics, neurophysiology, psychology to philosophy. The sessions are aimed to be informal and highly interactive with no preset time limits. Speakers will have 10 minutes of uninterrupted presenting time. Thereafter, they may and should be interrupted whenever questions arise.

After the meeting there will be a gathering in honor of the speaker where food and drink is provided. Graduate students are encouraged to attend and to participate.

* This speaker will also give a talk at the departmental colloquium