Chair's Corner

Fall semester is just around the corner, and this article from Inside Higher Ed ("Teaching Them How to Think") may provide some useful insight on how to adjust your lessons to maximize students' understanding of material, as well as test whether they have truly grasped it. Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute professor George Plopper's trials and tribulations while employing methodology from Bloom's Taxonomy may be helpful to keep in mind as you finalize lesson plans for the upcoming term.

Welcome Event: Organizational Change

On Wednesday September 21st, College of Business Administration Associate Professor and FBI consultant, Bert Spector, will share his expertise in implementing organizational change. Professor Spector has research and teaching interests in strategic change management and business model innovation.

Please RSVP here to reserve your place around the table for this event. The event will be in 411 Richards Hall at 12pm.

Mass-AWIS Resume Workshop - August 25th

Looking to revamp your resume/CV? Check out this workshop by the Massachusetts Association for Women in Science (Mass-AWIS) on August 25th. Lauren Celano, the founder and CEO at Propel Careers, will give a presentation on how to write a good resume and then experienced recruiters will review participants' materials. This is an excellent opportunity for graduate students and post-docs! Click here for more information on the event and to register.
