Chair's Corner

Can one be an effective administrator and a successful research scientist? The answer is that it is not easy and there are sacrifices to be made; however, there are many rewards to be had in administrative duties. In this article in Tomorrow's Professor, the author interviews men and women who have performed this dual role effectively and presents tips for finding success in administrative duties while keeping a thriving laboratory.

-Graham Jones

Chair of Chemistry and Chemical Biology, ADVANCE co-PI

International Research Collaboration Luncheon

How does one get involved in international collaborations? On November 16, 2010, join us for a lunch time discussion panel led by faculty with international research collaboration experience. Speakers include Katy Tucker (Health Sciences), Denise Garcia (Political Science), Paul Champion (Physics), and Elizabeth Podlaha-Murphy (Chemical Engineering). To RSVP for this event click here.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITY!

Attention faculty, postdocs, and graduate students in biology, physical science, and computational interface! The Burroughs Welcome Fund is accepting electronic applications for up to $15,000 in support for researchers to travel internationally or domestically to acquire new research techniques, facilitate collaboration, or attend a course. Click here for more details. Applications are due December 1, 2010.

Lunchtime Networking Hour

When: November 3, 2010

Where: Churchill Hall Cafeteria

Time: 12:00 - 1:00 PM

Once a month, ADVANCE organizes informal networking luncheons. All faculty are invited to join us in the faculty room of the Churchill Cafeteria. Bring your lunch and let's discuss what everyone is up to!

About Advance: www.northeastern.edu/advance

Northeastern University is a National Science Foundation funded ADVANCE Institutional Transformation site. This site's theme is to advance women in interdisciplinary and international networks. This 5-year institutional program is closely aligned with Northeastern's move toward interdisciplinary scholarship and increased global engagement. The Northeastern ADVANCE Program reports to the Office of the Provost. ADVANCE is funded by NSF Award HRD-08111701.
