

Other Career Resources

Northeastern University Career Services Web-based Resources

www.careerservices.neu.edu Our website has significant resources and links to more.

HuskyCareerLink – job and employer database. Email careerservices@neu.edu with your name, email address, major and class year, and the last 4 digits of a number you will remember to set up an account. Find HuskyCareerLink on our website.

Career Search and the Vault (from within HuskyCareerLink). Useful research tools.

NU Alumni Directory- through the Alumni Relations website www.neu.edu/alumni. You need an alumni ID number to register and set up your account to find Northeastern alumni.

Boston Area Public Resources for Career Development

One-Stop Career Centers: open to everyone. See: www.mass.gov/careercenters

There are One-Stops at many locations in Massachusetts. Boston locations:

JobNet, 210 South St, Boston 02111, 617-338-0809

Boston Career Link, 1010 Harrison Ave, Boston 02119, 617-536-1888

The Work Place, 29 Winter St, Boston 02108, 617-737-0093

Boston Area Private Resources for Career Development

The Career Counselors Consortium provides a directory of career counselors working in the Boston area. See “Find a Career Counselor” at <http://www.careercounselorsne.org>.

Boston Jewish Vocational Services: offers non-sectarian, reasonable cost career development services. See www.jvsjobs.org

Outside of Massachusetts

All states have public One-Stop Career Centers. Google “one-stops + your state”.

Jewish Vocational Services: offers non-sectarian, reasonable cost career development services. Google to find the JVS near you.

To find individual career counselors, google “career counselors + your state”. Or ask the Career Services Department of a local college or university for a referral.

These are places to start. Other organizations may offer career services. The newspaper, google and above all, talking to people, will help you find other resources.