

THE CENTER OF COMMUNITY SERVICE

Volunteer Recognition Form

Volunteers that receive recognition are undergraduate or graduate students at Northeastern University who have exhibited exceptional commitment to supporting the needs and interests of our surrounding neighborhoods of Fenway, Mission Hill, Roxbury, the South End, and throughout Boston through community service or service-learning activities. These students have exhibited a high level of commitment, enhanced the quality of programs or services, stand out as a leader amongst leaders, and whose personal character make them especially qualified for recognition.
