REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MINOR IN PSYCHOLOGY

Five courses (20 SH of PSYC credits) are required for a minor in psychology. The specific course requirements are presented below with the restrictions noted.

ONE Introductory Course:
Foundations of Psychology (PSYC 1101) or equivalent

TWO Courses From Topic Areas A and B: Select one from each Area

Area A: (select 1)
1) Personality (PSYC 3400)
2) Social Psychology (PSYC 3402)
3) Developmental Psychology (PSYC 3404)
4) Abnormal Psychology (PSYC 3406)

Area B: (select 1)
1) Learning and Motivation (PSYC 3450)
2) Learning Principles and Behavior Analysis (PSYC 3451)
3) Sensation and Perception (PSYC 3452)
4) Biological Psychology (PSYC 3458)
5) Psychology of Language (PSYC 3464)
6) Cognition (PSYC 3466)

TWO Other Psychology Courses Any other PSYC course can be used to fulfill this requirement. If you take more than one course from Area A or B, the additional courses in these areas will be counted here.

NOTED RESTRICTIONS:
- Satisfactory [S] Grades are not allowed for Minor courses.
- There are no course substitutions for the Minor -- all courses must be PSYC courses.
- The Area A and B courses must be NU Department courses – no transfer courses can be used to fulfill this particular requirement. Even if a transfer course is similar to the Department’s course, that transferred course will be used as a psychology elective course, and a different Area A or B course offered by the Department has to be taken.
