The four pillars of the Interfraternity Council:

Leadership · Scholarship · Service · Brotherhood
The Nu Epsilon Zeta Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi (ADP) was forged through the co-operation of one of the oldest national fraternities with one of Northeastern’s original four local fraternities. We were founded on friendship, chivalry, and service and we aim to live these principles every day of our lives. As a brother of Alpha Delta Phi at Northeastern, you will be part of an exclusive organization of 30+ active members with hundreds of local alumni and thousands of national alumni.
Our purpose is to provide the opportunity for a Jewish man to be able to join a Jewish organization whose purpose is not specifically religious, but rather social and cultural in nature. Alpha Epsilon Pi is a Jewish fraternity, though non-discriminatory and open to all who are willing to espouse its purpose and values. In our rich history at Northeastern, we have shown a commitment to bettering both the Jewish and Fraternity communities, and we continue to develop and thrive in creating the next generation of Jewish fraternity leaders.
Tracing its roots to a cold Boston winter in 1919, Alpha Kappa Sigma is one of the oldest fraternities at Northeastern University. Rapidly excelling since our humble beginnings almost a century ago, we have revamped from being a single profession fraternity to a purely social organization. As one of the two remaining Northeastern-exclusive fraternities, Alpha Kappa Sigma prides itself on its progressive attitude towards membership. Brothers of Alpha Kappa Sigma strive to facilitate our fellow brethren’s journeys through college while extensively developing and improving social and academic aspects of fellow brothers. As a member of Alpha Kappa Sigma, brothers will be given the opportunity to excel in the extensive fraternity/sorority community through our social interactions with other fraternities and sororities. College is a pivotal time in our lives. Join a brotherhood that’s close knit, scholarly, social, and that will help your true potential blossom.
Founded as Northeastern's first fraternity in 1919, Beta Gamma Epsilon takes pride in being one of the most unique Greek organizations on campus. Located at 234 Commonwealth Ave in our beautiful brownstone mansion, the only fraternity house at Northeastern, Beta Gamma Epsilon is committed to improving its members socially, academically, and professionally. Brothers can take advantage of our frequent programming events such as BBQs, Paintball, Ski trips, or our philanthropy events with organizations such as the Boston Athletic Association, American Red Cross, or the American Lung Association.

Beta Gamma Epsilon is also a unique social fraternity that only accepts engineering and science majors, which allows our brothers to study and travel through their academic careers together. If you are struggling in a class, brothers can help you. Professionally, brothers have completed co-ops at high profile companies such as Apple, Intel, NASA, and Paypal. Stop by for rush this semester to see if Beta Gamma Epsilon is right for you!
Founded in 1839, Beta Theta Pi is one of the oldest social men’s fraternity in the US and is committed to developing Men of Principle. With over 110 chapters and 300,000 alumni in North America, Beta is one of the largest fraternities in the country. Colonized in 2009 at Northeastern University, the Eta Zeta chapter of Beta Theta Pi has made its mark in the fraternity/sorority community and on campus by celebrating individuality, fostering brotherhood, and developing members into leaders. Our brothers come from a variety of backgrounds and interests, and are encouraged to be more than just a part of Beta. Brothers participate in debate, club sports, academic clubs, RSA, and many more on campus activities. Together as a fraternity, we commonly contribute to the improvement of the community through fundraisers and service projects. Last year, we raised over $1,500 through events like Balloon-a-Beta and our annual Beta Holidays event for our partner philanthropy, Camp Sunshine, a summer camp for terminally ill children that we also send volunteers to every year. At Northeastern, Betas go above and beyond to take our motto, Consensus Firman Facit (Cooperation Makes Strength) into our everyday lives. We, brothers of Beta Theta Pi, hope to see you at our rush events. Go Beta!
Delta Tau Delta is a social men’s fraternity whose four pillars of Truth, Courage, Faith, and Power help us live by our motto of “Committed to Lives of Excellence.” Our goal as a fraternity is to recognize and recruit well-intentioned, driven, intelligent men and guide them, through our values and New Member Education system, to become proactive students that are high performing, well rounded men. Men in our chapter are all over the world – whether it’s working in the UK, studying Hydroelectricity in Tasmania, Australia, or doing service work in Central America. Our presence on campus here is relatively new, but established. We started in 2013 with 40 men that were driven to succeed and by 2015, we won the Northeastern Chapter of the Year Award and are now one of the largest fraternities on campus. We were later recognized nationally by the Hugh Shields award given to the top 10 Delta Tau Delta chapters in the nation, recognizing overall chapter excellence. We are looking for men who are willing to evolve and drive change, both on and off campus.
Since its American founding in 1869, the Kappa Sigma Fraternity has united and enhanced the lives of more than 268,000 young men. The Xi-Beta chapter is one of the fraternity's most outstanding chapters, well representing each of its four pillars of fellowship, leadership, scholarship, and service. Currently consisting of over 120 brothers of diverse backgrounds and studies, the chapter boasts 100% involvement in a variety of different Northeastern clubs and organizations. Last semester alone, brothers donated more than 3,000 hours of volunteer work and raised more than $20,000. Those who take the pledge of being a Kappa should find themselves prosperous in their work and friendships throughout life due to Xi-Beta's staggering network of alumni in the Boston area and beyond.
Phi Delta Theta at Northeastern was founded in 2012, and is still creating an imprint on the university. We are a mid-sized fraternity, regularly around seventy brothers with various backgrounds. We encourage involvement in various organizations, readily broadening our reach and aiding in our own development. Our chapter has placed a great deal of responsibility on young members to step into leadership roles and to embrace learning by doing. Older members guide younger members through an involved families system. We have also found that an exceptional amount of enrichment has come from a dedication to serving causes both as a fraternity, supporting the fight against ALS with the local ALS Therapy Development Institute, and on the individual level working with the Big Brother’s system and other service organizations.
Sigma Phi Epsilon was founded at the University of Richmond in 1901 on the core values of virtue, diligence, and brotherly love, and was brought to Northeastern’s campus in 1992. SigEp is now the largest fraternity in terms of undergraduate membership with more than 300,000 lifetime members, including 15,000 undergrads. As a perennial gold standard chapter, we have continued this tradition of excellence at Northeastern, winning multiple Fraternity of the Year awards. These accomplishments are a product of the members we recruit, and following through our mission of Building Balanced Men. We continually develop programs for academic, athletic, and professional growth while consistently giving back to the community with service projects and fundraisers. As new opportunities for the chapter continue to emerge, we look forward to shaping the next generation of leaders, scholars, athletes, and gentlemen.
