Student Life at Northeastern University
2017-2018

Student Organizations, Fraternity and Sorority Life, Leadership and more!
Visit us at northeastern.eduCSI or stop by 434 Curry Student Center.
Through the Student Employment Office, students have the opportunity to work in various departments within the Curry Student Center. Are you interested in working behind the scenes at events? Working with the Event Management team might be right up your alley! Curious about how student programming works? The Center for Student Involvement hires about 40 students each semester to work in various positions: Programming Crew, Front Office Assistant, Creative Associate, and Marketing Associate, to name a few.

Visit our website at northeastern.edu/csi to get started. Here, you’ll find an introduction to the 400+ student organizations we have on campus. You can also connect with us on social media @434CSC — Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, we have it all. We use social media to showcase all of the exciting happenings around campus, so it’s a great way to learn more about our student organizations and events.

• Check out Fall Fest in September and the Winter Involvement Fair in January to meet members of clubs and find out how you can get involved.
• Participate in Welcome Week and other signature events throughout the year.
• Browse the list of student organizations on our website or at the Curry Student Center kiosk. You’ll be able to view each organization’s OrgSync profile and catch a glimpse of the student organization activities.
• Look into lending your creative talents to one of Northeastern’s many student media outlets – contribute an article, host a radio or TV show, or even design a magazine spread.
• Attend recruitment events or information sessions to learn more about Northeastern’s fraternities or sororities.
• Register for free leadership retreats, seminars, conferences, and skill building sessions.
• Stop by 434 Curry Student Center or our Programming Lab in 240 Curry Student Center and chat with one of our team members about additional opportunities for involvement.

Fraternities + Sororities

Fraternity and Sorority Life (FSL) at Northeastern University provides a unique and diverse opportunity for men and women to experience a lifetime bond of brotherhood and sisterhood. The FSL community, with over 2,000 students (and growing!), is vibrant and consistently showcases leadership, scholarship, and service through all endeavors. Chapters exist within four governing councils: Panhellenic Council, Interfraternity Council (IFC), Multicultural Greek Council (MGC), and National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC).

Our councils and individual chapters offer a space where students can experience safe and healthy educational, social, philanthropic, and academic opportunities.

Want to learn more about how you can get involved in Fraternity and Sorority Life at Northeastern? Check out the CSI website for updates regarding information sessions, recruitment, and events.

Northeastern has a total of 2,259 students in the Fraternity and Sorority Life community, making up 12% of the Northeastern University community.

GAME ROOM

The game room, located on the fourth floor, is a hot spot for student life on campus. Open long hours to accommodate student schedules, the game room is host to digital gaming devices, pool tables, ping pong, and other interactive fun! The game room is free to all Northeastern students, so stop by and check it out today!

PROGRAMMING LAB

The Programming Lab, located in 240 Curry Student Center, is a space designed to provide important resources for our student organizations on campus. Groups can use the space to plan programs and events with the CSI Programming Crew, attend workshops designed to train leaders on running successful organizations, host quick meetings with fellow executive board members, or simply relax and visit with the team. The space is open late and on Sundays for your convenience, and should be your first stop for all programming needs.

DANCE STUDIOS

Northeastern has a home for students who enjoy all types of dance. Join one of our performing arts groups, experience a vibrant and diverse group of talented students, and use the dance studios to perfect your craft.

AFTERHOURS

Afterhours is your on-campus night club and café. This is the “go-to” place on campus for live music, local and national bands and recording artists, DJ’s, spoken word artists, comedy, drag shows, film, and much more.

For more information about the venue, visit northeastern.edu/eventvenues.
LEAD360

LEAD360 is a collection of programs that provide students with the skills and knowledge to succeed as global leaders. These free programs are open to all undergraduate students and incorporate leadership education, training, and practical application.

BLUEPRINT + BLUEPRINT2

First-Year Leadership Programs
BLUEPRINT is a group mentoring program designed for first-year students who are interested in developing their leadership capacity through 8 weekly interactive sessions. You'll have the chance to make new connections on campus, attend a leadership retreat, and develop an action plan to achieve your leadership goals during your time at Northeastern. BLUEPRINT 2 allows you to put your learning into practice through community service, interactive workshops, and leadership event planning!

LEADERSHIP CONSULTANTS

The Leadership Consultants are a group of experienced peer leadership educators who serve as a resource for Northeastern University students and organizations by facilitating free leadership workshops on topics such as conflict resolution, personality styles, time management, and how to run effective meetings.

WOMEN’S LEADERSHIP

Women’s Leadership is designed to empower upper-class students who identify as women to further their leadership skills, while critically examining women’s issues related to the media, leadership, and global experiences. Join us and learn more about yourself, gender issues, and how to lead.

VOICES FOR SOCIAL CHANGE

This engaging and interactive program brings diverse students together to discuss leadership through the lens of social justice and identity. During this discussion-based program, you will have the opportunity to participate in activities that explore the similarities and differences shaped by the diversity within our community.

DEVELOP YOUR LEADERSHIP SKILLS
MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL
IMPROVE YOUR COMMUNICATION
TAKE INITIATIVE
EMPLOY OTHERS
MAKE NEW CONNECTIONS
ENHANCE YOUR CONFIDENCE
EXPLORE DIVERSITY
BUILD YOUR GLOBAL AWARENESS
