Inviting Inquiries and Applications for the 2012-13 Fellowship Year

The Massachusetts Educational Policy Fellowship Program (EPFP) is a ten-month development program for mid-career professionals in education and related fields. Fellows in the program develop skills and knowledge in the areas of leadership, public policy and networking. Massachusetts EPFP is part of a network of fourteen state programs sponsored by the Institute for Educational Leadership in Washington, D.C.

Massachusetts EPFP is an opportunity to:

- Develop leadership skills and learn about your leadership potential;
- Engage in education policy discussions with experts in the field;
- Create a network with local, state and national fellows and alumni.

The program year begins with an opening session on September 6, followed by an overnight retreat on September 21-22 in Ashland, MA. Fellows meet on Thursdays twice each month, from 5-8 PM, in dinner meetings from October to May. Meetings include guest speakers and discussion among Fellows on topics related to leadership and public policy. Massachusetts participants also meet with Fellows from other states at one regional and one national meeting:

- Regional Leadership Forum in Pennsylvania, October 4-5, 2012

Applications are now accepted until the new cohort is filled.

Please visit the Massachusetts EPFP website at www.northeastern.edu/epfp/ for application materials and more information.
