\(^1\) Except for the Department of Military Science (ROTC) which is an independent department of the University responsible for its own administrative functions. The staff is assigned by the Department of the Army, subject to University approval. The Department operates within the framework of policies and procedures established by the University and within the guidelines established by Army regulations. Individual courses are open to all students, while those students who desire to participate in the full program must meet established qualifications. The courses are presented concurrent with, and in conjunction with, the student's normal academic schedule. Air Force and Navy ROTC Programs are offered to Northeastern students on the Boston University campus.
3. Although instructional departments are assigned for administrative convenience to one of the colleges, each instructional department is responsible for offering the courses in its field that may be needed by students in any of the colleges.

4. The college faculties may adopt rules and regulations for their own operation not inconsistent with the bylaws of the University, the faculty bylaws set forth herein, and policies established by the Board of Trustees, the President, the Provost, and the Faculty Senate.
