NORTHEASTERN BY THE NUMBERS

OUTCOMES

90% of our graduates from 2006 through 2013 were employed full time or enrolled in graduate school within nine months of graduation.

50% of 2013 graduates received a job offer from a previous co-op employer.

85% of 2013 graduates who are employed full time are doing work related to their major.

83% Northeastern’s six-year graduation rate in 2013, up 18 percentage points since 2006.

85% of 2013–2014 PhD graduates secured full-time positions in academia, industry, and other sectors.

RESEARCH

210% increase since 2006 in number of patent applications filed by faculty and students.

217 patent applications filed in 2013–2014 by faculty and students.

$111.2M in external research funding, 2013–2014.
Academics

- 150+ undergraduate majors
- 122 master’s and doctoral programs
- 54 online degree programs
- 49 industry-aligned hybrid/online degree programs offered at the campuses in Charlotte, North Carolina, and Seattle

Industry

- 143 external research awards of $1 million or more since 2006
- 128% increase in external research funding since 2006
- 82% increase in research expenditures since 2006
- 20 technology start-ups formed by faculty and students in the past five years, including seven in 2013–2014

Financial Aid

- $220 million increase in financial aid since 2006
- 81% increase in financial aid—awarded to undergraduates in 2013–2014

For the first time this year, Northeastern will meet full demonstrated need for every member of the first-year class.

Research

- Increase in external research awards of $1 million or more since 2006
- 128% increase in external research funding since 2006
- 82% increase in research expenditures since 2006
- 20 technology start-ups formed by faculty and students in the past five years, including seven in 2013–2014

Northeastern University northeastern.edu