Introduction to this guide

This guide covers the general process of hiring staff in PeopleAdmin, but does not cover the business processes of individual colleges and departments. It is the responsibility of the individual colleges and departments to develop supplemental materials for their specific business processes and procedures and to communicate them as necessary.

Browser Note: PeopleAdmin works best on Google Chrome, or Firefox. You can use Internet Explorer or Safari, but you may experience slightly different behaviors between browsers.

Glossary of Terms

Module Type: PeopleAdmin has two modules to work in:
- Position Management: Allows you to manage your positions and job descriptions.
- Applicant Tracking: Allows you to manage your requisitions, applicants and hiring proposals.

Role: PeopleAdmin is structured to allow users to perform certain actions and have access to certain information based on the user's role. Most users default to the Employee role upon login. Pick the appropriate role for the action you are performing. You will only be able to select the role(s) that have been tied to your User Profile.

There are different roles in PeopleAdmin that allow you to perform different functions. Every user can access the system as the following roles: Employee, Search Committee or Facilitator. There are additional roles that you may have based on your job duties, for example: Key Contact.

For each lesson, always check that your role is correct. With the exception of managing your application pool, most lessons in this guide are for the role of originator or key contact.

Most Common Role Descriptions:
- Division Approver: Typically assigned to a department head who will be responsible for approving positions and hires. You may be assigned a Department level approver role or an Executive level approver role.
- Department Chair: Responsible for approving recruitment plans for Tenured and Tenure Track Faculty searches
- Employee: Serves as the Default Role; currently this role contains no functionality.
- Facilitator: You may be selected (by a Key Contact) to serve as a Facilitator for a particular requisition. In this role you control the applicant workflow states.
- Key Contact: This role can create and modify positions and can also approve actions initiated by an Originator for a division. This includes positions, requisitions, and hiring proposals.
- Originator: This role can initiate the creation or modify positions. All forms created by this person must be approved by the Key Contact.
- Search Committee: You may be selected (by a Key Contact) to serve on a Search Committee for a particular requisition. In this role you can view applicants, submit rankings, and add comments to applicant records.

Home Page Navigation

It is important to familiarize yourself with the homepage of PeopleAdmin and there are several shortcuts available to you.

1. Product Module: Click the drop-down button to toggle between Position Management and Applicant Tracking. When you are in the Position Management Module the header will be orange; and in the Applicant Tracking module the header will be blue. The system will default to Applicant Tracking when you initially log in.

2. Role Selector: Use the drop down to change your role and then click the Refresh button. You will have successfully changed roles when you see a green bar with a ‘success’ message across the top of the page. Click the x icon to close this green bar.

3. Inbox: Contains items that need your attention/action as part of a workflow.
   - Items in your inbox require an action on your part; often the action will require your approval.
   - Your Inbox is organized in tabs: Requisitions, Hiring Proposals and Actions.
   - You can easily access the specific item directly via your inbox, review it, and select the next step in the workflow; without navigating elsewhere in PeopleAdmin to locate your action items.
   - You will also receive an email in your regular Northeastern Outlook email program to alert you that something new is in your PeopleAdmin Inbox

4. Watch List: Stores positions, requisitions and hiring action items that you choose to ‘watch’. For example, when you create a requisition and send it to the next step in the workflow, you can choose to include the requisition in your Watch List. This way you can monitor the subsequent approvals and actions on that requisition.

5. Messages: Only used if you run reports in PeopleAdmin.

6. Shortcuts: Commonly used links to different areas of PeopleAdmin.
   - These links vary by role and by product module.
   - Familiarize yourself with this area as it’s the quickest way to jump around in PeopleAdmin.

7. My Links: Commonly used external links. These links are helpful when trying to access common websites such as the HRM applicant portal.
Lesson 1: Position Management Module Overview

The Position Management module allows you to manage your positions and job descriptions. You will use this module when you need to hire an employee or manage position information for your existing employees.

To navigate to the Position Management module:

1. In the Product Module drop-down select Position Management.
2. In the Role drop-down select Originator or Key Contact.

3. There are several tabs across the top:
   a. Home: The Homepage lists your Inbox, Watch List, Shortcuts and Links.
   b. Positions: List of positions within your division. There are several options:
      - Staff, Full-Time Faculty and Part-Time Faculty (highlighted in yellow below): Allows you to view the associated Positions Library and create positions.
      - Staff Actions, Full-Time Faculty Actions and Part-Time Faculty Actions (highlighted in purple below): List of transactions that have been created in your area.
   c. Position Classes: List of position classes for viewing purposes. Includes Staff, Full-Time Faculty and Part-Time Faculty. These are important for Banner and relate to positions.
   d. My Profile: You can adjust your login preferences under “My Profile” and set your preferred default role.
   e. Help: PeopleAdmin help guides, not Northeastern Specific.
Lesson 2: Staff Position Overview

When you need to fill a vacancy or manage a current employee’s position, you will need to create or modify a position in PeopleAdmin. There is an online form that captures position specific information and job description information. While the steps will vary for how you can create or modify a position, all actions will require some level of approval. See each lesson for a detailed approval workflow.

In most cases each employee is assigned to a unique position in PeopleAdmin so the ratio of positions to employees is 1:1.

When you are ready to fill a vacancy, if you are unsure how to begin, use the decision tree below to guide you:
Lesson 3A: Create a New Staff Position

A new position can be initiated by an Originator or a Key Contact. If you create a position in the role of an Originator, the position will go to the Key Contact next, and then the Key Contact will send it to HR Compensation (HRC). HRC will review and make any appropriate adjustments to the position attributes before forwarding it to the next step in the workflow.

If the position needs to be edited after this step, it must send it back to the Key Contact. The users in the subsequent workflow steps cannot edit the position.

The Key Contact will receive an email when HRC sends it to the next step in the workflow. Each user in the workflow steps will receive an email when the action has been forwarded to them and it will also be in their PA inbox on the homepage.

Steps To Create a New Position

1. In the Product Module drop-down select Position Management.
2. In the Role drop-down select Originator or Key Contact.
3. Click the Positions tab and select Staff.
4. The Position Library will display.
5. Click the Create New Position button in the upper right hand corner.
6. A pop up box will display with two choices; each choice determines which form you will use:
   a. Create New Staff Position: Combined form for A/P, OST, Crafts, and Service positions
   b. Create New Research Position: Form for Research Scientists family and Post-Doctoral positions

   !Create New Staff Position

   NOTE: In this guide, we will use Staff Positions in all examples. If you need to create a Research position select the Research Position option here. As you go through the guide, some of the Research fields will be slightly different than the Staff fields, but overall, the process is the same.

7. Select Create New Staff Position.

   If you are creating a new position, proceed to step 8. If you are cloning a position, skip to step 10.

8. Complete the following fields:
   a. Position Title: Free form field limited to 30 characters, abbreviate if necessary.
      You will have an opportunity to write more characters in this field on the requisition for posting purposes; the 30 character limit is for the position and Banner HR only.
   b. Executive Level: (defaults based on your system settings)
   c. Division: (defaults based on your system settings)
   d. Department: Select the Department where this position will reside. Note:
      i. You will only see departments that you have access to.
      ii. This field does not determine the funding for the position, only where it resides; you will designate the funding information for this position later on in the process.

9. Click Start Action to continue; skip to step 11.

   !Create New Staff Position
10. To clone an existing position, leave all of the fields blank and select a position from the library. Click the circle to the left of the position and click Start Action.
   a. You will only have access to position descriptions within your own division.
   b. All attributes associated with the cloned position will carry over to the new position.

11. Action Form: Whether you created a new position or cloned one, you are now on the Action Form.
   a. If you created a new position you will want to move through the form in a linear fashion. Complete the necessary fields in each section and then Click Next.
   b. If you cloned a position and know which fields you need to edit, you can jump to each section by clicking on the section titles on the left side.
   c. At any time, you can save the position by clicking the Save button. When you click Next at the end of each section, the position will automatically save.
Follow the table below to complete the fields on the Staff Position form. Required fields have an asterisk (*). Click Next at the end of each section.

   - Appear on the history tab of the position
   - Allow you to communicate with the next approver, previous user comments will display in the notification email to the next approver.
   - The comments live with the position action and are viewable to everyone

16. Once the position is approved, you can create a requisition. Go to lesson 4.
Lesson 3B: Modify an Existing Position

A position can be modified by an Originator or a Key Contact. If you initiate a position modification in the role of an Originator, the position will go to the Key Contact next, and then the Key Contact will send it to HR Compensation (HRC). HRC will review and make any appropriate adjustments to the attributes of the position before forwarding it to the next step in the Workflow.

If the position needs to be edited after this step, it must send it back to the Key Contact. The users in the subsequent workflow steps cannot edit the position.

The Key Contact will receive an email when HRC sends it to the next step in the workflow. Each user in the workflow steps will receive an email when the action has been forwarded to them and it will also be in their PA inbox on the homepage.

Steps To Modify an Existing Position

1. In the Product Module drop-down select Position Management.
2. In the Role drop-down select Originator or Key Contact.
3. Click the Positions tab and select Staff.
4. The Position Library will display.
5. Select the position that you wish to modify by clicking the position number.
6. Select an Action from the list on the right side of the screen. In this example, click Modify a Staff Position. If you are modifying a Research position, choose Modify Research Position.

!Modify Staff Position

7. You will be asked if you are sure, click Start. The position form will display.

!Start Modify Staff Position Action

8. Before you can make any edits, you must provide a reason for the change and include any information regarding the request. There are 4 Types of Changes:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Reason</th>
<th>When Used</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Job Description Update</td>
<td>There is an update to a job description that resides in the job library or a description needs to be added for an existing position.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reclassification</td>
<td>There is a request to have a change to title and/or grade to an existing position with a seated employee. This may or may not result in a salary change.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Position Information Update</td>
<td>There are changes to position details, index information, employee class, hours, position class code, etc.</td>
</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

9. Information Regarding Request: Briefly explain your intentions to create a position. You can also use this section to put information such as additional responsibilities, new or different skills, expected outcomes, etc. All approval groups will be able to see the comments. Click Save.
10. Now you can view and edit any of the position attributes by clicking through the sections on the left. For example, if you need to edit the grade and position title, click the Job Description Section and edit the fields. Once you are done editing, click Save.

11. Click the Action Summary section on the left side.
12. Click the Take Action on Action button and select Sent to HR Comp for Review. Add comments if necessary and click Submit.
13. The page will refresh and a green bar with the ‘success’ message appears next (click the x icon to close).
14. The Status and Owner fields will now show HR Compensation. You cannot edit the Position Action.

15. Once the position is approved, you can create a requisition. Go to lesson 4.
Lesson 3C: Post an Existing Position Without Any Changes

If you have a position that does not require any changes related to the job description or position specific details, you can send it for department approval and bypass HR Compensation and Budget approval. This is a read only form. This should only be used when you are certain that there are no changes.

For example, if you are replacing someone who wasn’t an employee for very long it’s likely the position attributes haven’t changed.

Steps To Post an Existing Position Without Any Changes

1. In the Product Module drop-down select Position Management.
2. In the Role drop-down select Originator or Key Contact.
3. Click the Positions tab and select Staff.
4. The Position Library will display.

5. Open the position that you want to modify by clicking the position number.
6. Select Approval to Post Existing Staff Position Without Changes.

7. You will be asked if you are sure, click Start.

8. The position form will display and you can view the position attributes by clicking through the sections on the left.

   - The position will be locked from any other updates during this time.

9. Click the Action Summary link.
10. Click the Take Action on Action button and select Send to Department Approver. Add comments if necessary and click Submit.

11. The page will refresh and a green bar with the ‘success’ message appears next (click the x icon to close).

12. The Status and Owner fields will now show Department Approver. You cannot edit the Position Action.

13. Once the position is approved, you can create a requisition. Go to lesson 4.
Lesson 4: Create a Staff Requisition

Create Staff Requisitions

Now that you received approval to either replace or create a new position, you will need to create a requisition. A requisition will become the job posting that candidates apply to. Before you create a requisition, you will need to obtain the Action Number from the approved position. You can find the Action Number in two places:

1. If you received an email from compensation, it will be in the email.
2. You can look it up in PeopleAdmin:
   a. In the Product Module drop-down select Position Management.
   b. In the Role drop-down select Originator or Key Contact.
   c. Click the Positions tab and select Staff Actions.
   d. Type the position number in the Search field. The Action Number is under the Staff Position Actions in the far left column.

🌟 If you selected the Watch Your Action option when creating the position, the position will be in your Watch List. Open the position and scroll to the Action Only section to find the action number.
You are now ready to create a new requisition.

Steps to Create a Staff Requisition

1. Switch to the Applicant Tracking module.
2. Change your role to Originator or a Key Contact if necessary.
3. From the homepage either:
   a. Click the Create New Staff Requisition link under the Shortcuts section on the right-hand side.
   b. From the Requisition tab, select Staff and click the Create New Requisition button.

4. Three options will display but most users select the last option: Create from Position.
   - Create from Position Type: do not use; for HRM Administrator use only.
   - Create from Requisition: used for cloning existing requisitions in your area, please call HRM before using.
   - Create from Position: this is recommended for most requisitions as most of the position information is pulled over.

5. After selecting Create from Position, a listing of positions will appear on the next page. This is your Positions Library.

Reminder!

You can have only one open requisition tied to a single position at one time. If you plan on using a requisition to hire more than one person, you will need to open a single requisition, and then at the time of hire, you would change the default position number to another approved position.
6. Find your position and click the Action drop-down to the right of it.
7. Select Create From to connect the position to the requisition. If you don’t see the Create From option, use the View option to see the outstanding actions that need to be completed before you can use this position to create a requisition.

!New Requisition Form

8. The New Requisition form will display. Complete the fields in the form by following the instructions in the table below. Required fields have an asterisk (*):

Lesson 6: Manage Staff Applicant Pool

Key Points:

− As a Key Contact, you can only review applicants in the system/ managing the applicant pool at this step if you are listed as a Facilitator on the requisition. If you need to be added after the requisition has been posted, you will need to contact HR employment to be added.

− A Key Contact may also be a member of a Search Committee.

− As a Key Contact, you will need to indicate who will be a facilitator (ability to managing the applicant pool on the requisition) versus who will be a search committee member (view applicant pool only).

− Applicant Dispositions: Once you review an applicant, a Facilitator can take action on the applicant, also known as a disposition. Below are the 3 options available:

  ▪ Move the applicant along various workflow states (Facilitator Only Review > Reviewed by Facilitator > Screened > Interviewed, etc.). In doing so, Search Committee members and others can view and rank applicants.

  ▪ Reject staff applicants instead of moving them along in the Workflow. Once rejected, they are no longer active in the applicant pool. HRM can move applicants out of the rejected state if necessary.

  ▪ Keep an applicant in the Facilitator Only Review state for later consideration.
Steps to Manage Staff Applicants

b. Application Form: Designates the External vs. Internal Employee application type.

c. Active/Inactive: If you set up disqualification questions on the requisition and an applicant was disqualified based on their responses, they will not display on this ‘Active Applicant’ list. You can always view Inactive candidates by clicking the More search options link and selecting Inactive.

Any Internal candidates should be contacted regarding their candidacy.
