$250 Travel Voucher

Northeastern University School of Law

Congratulations on your admission to Northeastern University School of Law. We believe you won't find another law school that offers you the benefits of a NUSL education. Our renowned co-op program, commitment to social justice, and collaborative learning environment provide an intellectually satisfying and personally rewarding law school experience.

The best way to understand the advantages of a Northeastern legal education is to come for a visit. Please join us for our Admitted Student Open House on March 31, 2012.

To encourage your visit, we offer you this $250 Open House Travel Voucher. Simply make your travel plans and keep all of your receipts.

When you arrive at the Open House, submit this form along with your original receipt(s), so we may process your reimbursement. The voucher is valid for plane, train, and/or bus expenses to our Admitted Student Open House. We cannot cover expenses such as food, car rental, mileage, gas, MBTA fare, cab expenses, or overnight accommodations.

This form is non-transferable and is meant for the recipient only. It may only be used for travel to the Admitted Student Open House on March 31, 2012.*

Original receipts must be provided for reimbursement.
