

Northeastern University
School of Law

In May 1964, in Mississippi, the White Knights of the KKK brutalized and murdered CHARLES MOORE and HENRY DEE. More than 40 years later, justice was served. A Klansman was convicted and sentenced to three consecutive life terms in federal prison. In an unprecedented civil law suit, the victims' families obtained a settlement in June 2010.

JOIN US IN WELCOMING TO BOSTON

THOMAS MOORE & THELMA COLLINS

Hear the story of the victims' families' pursuit of justice and how they prevailed with the aid of Professor Margaret Burnham and the Civil Rights & Restorative Justice project.

Special Guest Artist: Danielle Ponder, NUSL '11

Co-Sponsors: BLSA and the Northeastern Law Forum

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 2010: 12:00 – 1:30pm

230 Dockser Hall, 65 Forsyth Street, Boston

Pizza will be served.