In June 28, 1968, New York City police raided a mafia run gay bar, The Stonewall Inn. For the first time, patrons refused to be led into the paddy wagon. It was a “Rosa Parks” moment. This film is the first non-fiction film to tell the story of the Stonewall riots by the participants.

Join David Heilbroner ’84 for a discussion of his film, Stonewall Uprising. Mr. Heilbroner is a former Manhattan prosecutor turned author and noted documentary filmmaker. His work has earned many awards, including several Emmys.
