You are Invited | A FILM SCREENING
NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW PRESENTS

THE FREEDOM TO MARRY

A FILM BY
EDDIE ROSENSTEIN

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26, 2017 | 5:30 P.M.

AND A POST-FILM DISCUSSION WITH
MARY BONAUTO ‘87, Civil Rights Project Director at Gay & Lesbian Advocates & Defenders, and EDDIE ROSENSTEIN.

THE FREEDOM TO MARRY is an intimate and epic documentary: it’s a riveting ride alongside Evan Wolfson, the man known as the movement’s architect, civil rights attorney Mary Bonauto and their key colleagues as they wage their climactic battle before the US Supreme Court, providing fresh perspective on the movement’s history along the way.

SPACE IS LIMITED. Reserve your seat at northeastern.edu/law/freedomtomarry.

NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY FENWAY CENTER, 77 ST. STEPHEN STREET, BOSTON (CORNER OF GAINSBOROUGH STREET)

Northeastern University School of Law

For more information: lawcommunications@northeastern.edu