

The Public Interest Law Scholarship is the most prestigious award offered by Northeastern University School of Law. Recipients possess an outstanding academic profile, show a strong commitment to social justice and demonstrate a strong desire to pursue public interest law.

To be considered for the full tuition Public Interest Law Scholarship, applicants must first gain admission to the law school. Please complete this application and tell us about your qualifications. You may also include up to two recommendations specifically regarding your qualifications for this scholarship.

The scholarship application deadline is January 4, 2010. Thus, it is strongly recommended that you complete your law school application as early as possible.

Northeastern University
School of Law

400 Huntington Avenue
Boston, Massachusetts 02115

Phone: (617) 373-2395
Fax: (617) 373-8865
lawadmissions@neu.edu
www.northeastern.edu/law

PUBLIC INTEREST LAW SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

■ Personal Information

NAME: _____

LSAC #: _____

ADDRESS: _____

CITY: _____

STATE: _____ ZIP: _____

TELEPHONE: (H) _____ (W) _____

E-MAIL: _____

THE FOLLOWING ITEMS MUST BE SUBMITTED NO LATER THAN JANUARY 4, 2010:

■ Public Interest Experience/Work

Please include a list of all activities that are related to your public interest experience. Relevant experiences may be volunteer or paid positions and may go back as far as your high school years. It is most helpful to the committee if you put these experiences on a grid with the name of the organization, type of activity and dates/time spent in each activity.

■ Public Interest Essay

Please discuss, in no more than two pages, your view of the role of the law as a vehicle for influencing social change. Please focus on your professional and/or personal experiences with a specific social issue. How do you expect the knowledge you gain from legal studies to advance your ability to address this or similar issues?

■ Optional Letter(s) of Reference (up to two)