Degradation Ceremonies: Constitutional and Statutory Limits of the Punishment After Punishment

Thursday, September 28, 2017, 4 P.M.
Campus Center, Amherst Room - 10th Floor

Michael Meltsner
George J. and Kathleen Waters Matthews Distinguished University Professor of Law, Northeastern University School of Law

Professor Meltsner was first assistant counsel to the NAACP Legal Defense Fund in the 1960s. During his career, Professor Meltsner has served as dean of Northeastern Law School, has been awarded a Guggenheim Fellowship and has served as a consultant to the US Department of Justice, the Ford Foundation and the Legal Action Center. In 2000, he was named a fellow of the American Academy in Berlin and conducted research on German constitutional law. He returned to Northeastern in 2005 after serving as the director of the First-Year Lawyering Program at Harvard Law School. Professor Meltsner has received the Hugo Bedau Award for excellence in death penalty scholarship, was awarded an honorary doctorate by John Jay College (CUNY) and has been described as the “principal architect of the death penalty abolition movement” in the United States.