Justice Albie Sachs (retired)

Constitutional Court of South Africa

“The Strange Alchemy of Life & Law”

From a young age, Justice Albie Sachs played a prominent part in the struggle for justice in South Africa. As a result, he was detained in solitary confinement, was subject to sleep deprivation and eventually injured by a car bomb that cost him an arm and the sight in one eye. He played a critical role in drawing up South Africa's post-apartheid Constitution, and served as a member of the Constitutional Court for 15 years.

Justice Sachs is the author of The Strange Alchemy of Life & Law, which combines personal reflections with extracts from some of his key judgments.
