Join Us for a SYMPOSIUM

Professor Clare Dalton’s life and work represent a commitment to feminist theory and practice, and to women’s experiences.

This symposium, co-sponsored with the Harvard Journal of Law and Gender, will explore the ways in which feminist theory has enriched feminist practice and both shaped and reflected women’s experiences. We invite you to celebrate Professor Dalton’s accomplishments as she retires from the Northeastern law faculty, and to discuss new theoretical and practical approaches to women’s experiences in legal education and beyond.
