The following outlines the courses per major for N.U.in England students attending the Foundation for International Education during the 2016 Fall semester. All students will be enrolled in a total of five courses during the fall semester. These courses are selected for students who will transfer into the College of Arts, Media, and Design and the College of Social Sciences and Humanities in January.

College of Arts, Media, and Design (all majors)

College of Social Sciences and Humanities (all majors)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Fall 2016 N.U.in Courses</th>
<th>Northeastern Equivalents</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The Global Experience</td>
<td>The Global Experience</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>British Life and Cultures</td>
<td>SOCL 1990: Elective</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>College Writing: Britain as Text</td>
<td>ENGW 1111: First Year Writing</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Students can choose 2 of the following for their fall courses. If a student has AP/IB Credit for one of the courses above, per the recommendation of their advisor, they may have the opportunity to choose from the following as a course alternative:

- Understanding Civilizations: Islam and the West
- Music in 20th Century Britain
- Modern and Contemporary Fine Art in London
- Contemporary British Theatre
- Transnational Studies: Global Diasporas
- Calculus for Business and Economics
- Microeconomics
- Environmental Science: Our Role in Today's World

- MATH 1231: Calculus for Business and Economics
- ECON 1116: Principles of Microeconomics
- ENVR 1101: Environmental Science