

Northeastern

School of Record

Northeastern University serves as a School of Record for a number of high quality distinctive study abroad programs:

AMIDEAST

AMIDEAST is a leading American non-profit organization engaged in international education, training and development activities in the Middle East and North Africa.

Founded in 1951, AMIDEAST in its early years focused on promoting U.S. study to students in the MENA region and managing U.S. scholarships and exchanges such as the flagship Fulbright Foreign Student Program.

Northeastern serves as a School of Record for all of AMIDEAST's programs in Egypt, Jordan, Morocco and Tunisia.

CAPA International Education:

For almost 40 years CAPA has provided students with the learning experience of a lifetime. With both individual and group based study abroad programs, CAPA delivers quality experiential education across the globe. With programs centers located on three continents in five countries, students are taught using a tested and proven educational program called My Education \(ME\) which blends theme based classroom learning and experiential learning to give students the context they need to expand their understanding of the world in which they live.

Northeastern serves as the School of Record for CAPA's programs in Brussels and Florence:
