

UNIVERSITY WITHDRAWAL

Students seeking to withdraw from the University for any reason should contact the student services office of their college.

Students may be withdrawn from the University for financial, disciplinary, academic, or health reasons. In the last case, the vice president for student affairs will review the recommendations of the director of health services to determine whether the student should withdraw. Withdrawals are made only when it is determined that the student is a danger to himself or herself or to other members of the University community, or when the student has demonstrated behavior detrimental to the educational mission of the University.

International students should discuss maintenance of proper U.S. immigration status with an advisor at the International Student and Scholar Institute before requesting or after having been placed on withdrawal.
