The Department of Communication Studies is dedicated to providing a liberal arts education where critical skills, concepts, and thinking are developed in conjunction with practice and application. Through a study of processes, patterns, and media of communication, the major in communication studies from Northeastern University aims to provide an enriching background for our students, providing them with an opportunity to contribute significantly to the communication sector, whether that contribution is within organizations, in the public sphere, or in the media industries themselves. Through its students and faculty, communication studies at Northeastern is a program dedicated to critical innovation. It strives to integrate new research into teaching and pedagogy to ensure students are connected to new developments in the field of communication.

Transferring to the Major

Students wishing to transfer to the major must have a cumulative GPA of 3.000 overall and must have completed:

COMM 1101 Introduction to Communication Studies 4 SH and one of the following courses:
COMM 1112 Public Speaking (no prerequisite) 4 SH
COMM 1220 Media, Culture, and Society (prerequisite COMM 1101) 4 SH
COMM 1231 Principles of Organizational Communication (prerequisite COMM 1101) 4 SH with grades of B or higher. Acceptance into the major is based on students’ meeting the department’s criteria for admission and availability of space in the programs. Requests to transfer into the major should be submitted to the communication studies department office by October 1, February 1, or July 1.

Academic Progression Standards

Departmental probation will result from a cumulative GPA below 2.000. No more than two grades below a C in communication studies courses can be used to fulfill degree requirements. Dismissal from the major may occur as a result of two consecutive semesters on departmental probation.
