

Northeastern University

Guide for Principal Investigators

PREPARING YOUR PROPOSAL FOR SUBMITTAL
TO A SPONSOR

PREPARING YOUR PROPOSAL FOR SUBMITTAL TO A SPONSOR

TABLE OF CONTENTS

HOW TO BEGIN	page 1
Developing Your Proposal: First Principles	1
Basic Grant-Getting Principles	1
10-Step Process: Initial Idea to Submission	2
THE COMPONENTS OF A PROPOSAL	3
1. The Text	3
Title Page or Cover Page	3
Abstract or Project Summary	4
The Introduction	4
Goals and Objectives	4
Description of the Proposed Project	4
Project Management	5
Qualifications of the Project Staff	5
Background, Literature Review	6
Description of Institutional Resources	6
Evaluation	6
Project Staffing	6
Curriculum Vitae	6
Current and Pending Support	7
Subcontracts	7
Intellectual Property Rights	7
2. The Budget	8
For Proposals to Federal Agencies	8
For Proposals to Non-Federal Agencies and/or Sponsors	8
3. Supporting Documents/Appendices	8
4. Compliance	9
Human Subjects in Research & Instruction	9
Animal Subjects in Research & Instruction	9
Use of Hazardous Substances	9
5. Representations & Certifications	9
HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR PROPOSAL	10
1. Which NU Office Reviews/Processes Your Proposal?	10
2. Processing Your Proposal through DSPA	11
Required Copies of the Proposal	11
University Review and Approval	12

3. Electronic Submission of Proposals	13
NSF's Fast Lane	13
Future Developments	13
4. Deadlines	13
On-Campus Deadlines	13
Funding Agency Deadlines	13
Target Dates	14
5. Multiple Solicitations	14
SPONSOR PROPOSAL REVIEW	14
1. Types of Review	14
Internal Review	14
Peer Review	14
Other Types of Review	14
2. Obtaining Reviewers' Comments	15
NEGOTIATION AND ACCEPTANCE OF SPONSORED AGREEMENTS	15
SERVICE PRINCIPLES	16
APPENDICES
Appendix 1: Proposal Processing Form
Appendix 2: Subcontracts and Your Proposal
Appendix 3: Definition of Agreement: Gifts, Grants and Contracts
Appendix 4: Service Principles
ALPHABETICAL INDEX

