What is Title IX?
Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 is a federal law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in all university programs and activities. Prohibited offenses considered forms of sex discrimination under Title IX include: sexual harassment and sexual violence, which includes rape, sexual assault, sexual coercion, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking. Title IX also prohibits retaliation against people for making or participating in complaints of sex discrimination, or the investigation of the same.

The Title IX Coordinator
- Is responsible for coordinating the University’s compliance with Title IX
- Investigates complaints of sex discrimination
- Provides training and education for students and employees about their rights under Title IX and associated grievance procedures

Contact Information
The Office of Institutional Diversity and Inclusion (OIDI) is responsible for oversight of Title IX and the University’s Equal Opportunity Policy.

If you wish to file a complaint, or have questions or concerns, please contact:
The Office of Institutional Diversity and Inclusion (OIDI)
Title IX Coordinator
Email: titleix@neu.edu
Phone: (617) 373-2133
Location: 125 Richards Hall
Website: www.northeastern.edu/oidi or www.northeastern.edu/titleix

On Campus Resources
University Health and Counseling Services (UHCS)..........................(617) 373-2772
Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution (OSCCR).................(617) 373-4390
Residential Life..............................(617) 373-2814
NU Public Safety Division (NUPD)......................................................(617) 373-2121
...........................................(Emergency) (617) 373-3333
Title IX Coordinator..............(617) 373-2133
We Care..................................(617) 373-4384

Off Campus Resources
Boston Area Rape Crisis Center (BARCC) .................................................1-800-841-8371
Violence Recovery Program at Fenway Health ................................................(617) 927-6250
Victims Rights Law Center (VRLC) ...............................................................(617) 399-6720

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 is a federal law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in all university programs and activities. Prohibited offenses considered forms of sex discrimination under Title IX include: sexual harassment and sexual violence, which includes rape, sexual assault, sexual coercion, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking. Title IX also prohibits retaliation against people for making or participating in complaints of sex discrimination, or the investigation of the same.

What is Title IX?
Sexual violence is not tolerated at Northeastern. The University recommends that incidents of sexual violence be reported to NUPD or OIDI. In cases where an individual identified as the perpetrator is a Northeastern student, the additional option of charging that student under a violation of the Code of Student Conduct through OSCCR exists.

ViSION brings together a network of campus and community allies focused on providing violence prevention, response, and education for Northeastern students. ViSION offers:

- Training and education in prevention and response to sexual violence, interpersonal violence, stalking, and hate crimes
- Access to immediate and confidential medical and counseling services
- Referral to compassionate and skilled legal services
- Awareness presentations
- Assistance and support in planning your campus organization’s programming on sexual violence and other violence awareness

University Health and Counseling Services (UHCS)
- Assessment and treatment of physical injury
- Pregnancy assessment and prevention
- Evaluation, treatment, and prevention of sexually transmitted infections
- Psychological assessment and support
- Individual therapy and referrals to clinicians in the community
- Urgent appointments
- Advocacy
- Consultations for individuals and campus support

Residential Life
- Temporary safe room or permanent change of room assignment, if necessary
- An identified perpetrator may be temporarily or permanently banned from a residence hall pending the outcome of an investigation
- Referral to counseling services both on and off campus

Northeastern University Public Safety Division (NUPD)
- Full investigation of reported cases of violence and sexual violence by specially trained officers
- Medical attention, including transportation to an area hospital
- Information about criminal prosecution and University disciplinary alternatives
- Detectives can accompany and provide transportation for survivors to all court sessions both on and off campus
- Detective assistance in obtaining a Harassment Protection Order, No Contact Order and/or Restraining Order through the appropriate system
- Referral to counseling services both on and off campus
- Presentations on violence and sexual violence awareness by specially trained public safety staff upon request

Students who experience sexual violence have the right to:
- Report the incident to the police
- Referrals to counseling on and off campus
- Relocation to a different residence hall
- Change in academic schedule
- Meet with an Assistant District Attorney
- Report the incident to OSCCR
- Report the incident to OIDI/Title IX Coordinator
- Access to medical care
- Alternative transportation, if appropriate

Sexual violence encompasses all Prohibited Offenses as defined in the Title IX policy. Sexual harassment and sexual violence include but are not limited to sexual assault, sexual coercion, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking.

The University provides medical, counseling, investigatory, and prosecutorial assistance to any student who reports sexual violence.