Northeastern University
OTHER SCHOLARSHIPS AND PROGRAMS

Boston Public High School students may also be interested in and eligible for the following scholarships and programs.

BALFOUR ACADEMY SCHOLARSHIP

Full tuition, room and board scholarships offered to graduates of Balfour Academy who are admitted to Northeastern's full-time undergraduate day program. For more information, please visit balfouracademy.neu.edu.

TORCH SCHOLARS PROGRAM

A Northeastern University national initiative scholarship program to recruit and retain first generation college students with promise. Students must be nominated by a professional to be considered, and finalists will be invited to campus for a full-day evaluation. For more information, please visit northeastern.edu/torch.

THE UJIMA GLOBAL LEADERS PROGRAM

This scholarship program identifies students who have the potential to become agents for positive global change. The program is focused on developing leaders for an increasingly diverse and complex world. Scholarship recipients are selected by the John D. O'Bryant African-American Institute and Admissions. For more information, please visit northeastern.edu/aai/programs/ujima-global-leaders-program.

FOUNDATION YEAR

Northeastern’s one-year, non-residential program enrolls students in a full-year of college credit through the College of Professional Studies. This cohort model accepts 75 students per year and integrates rigorous academics with academic and advising services for students in their first year of college. If a student demonstrates financial need, the entire cost of the program is covered by federal entitlements and Northeastern funding. Students admitted to Northeastern’s full time undergraduate day program after the completion of Foundation Year are awarded full-tuition scholarships to the university. For more information, please visit northeastern.edu/foundationyear.
