One-on-One Academic Support

Tutoring can benefit skilled professionals and beginning students alike. Whether you’re struggling with organic chemistry, working on a long paper, or putting the finishing touches on a presentation, NU offers many opportunities for you to enhance your academic work and professional skills through free one-on-one academic support on and off campus.

Northeastern Writing Center
45-minute appointments cover writing topics from start-to-finish such as research, organization, development, introductions, conclusions, multimedia projects, grammar, punctuation, and format.

Available to: All NU students
Location: 412 Holmes Hall, Snell Library, and Mobile
Type of Tutor: Trained Undergraduate, MA, and PhD students
For appointments: https://neu.mywconline.com/

International Tutoring Center
50-minute appointments for ELL writing instruction, grammar or vocabulary, and assistance with the research process, as well as special workshops on topics such as American culture and pronunciation.

Available to: All NU international students
Location: Basement of Snell Library
Type of Tutor: Primarily professionals with advanced degrees
For appointments: https://neu.mywconline.net/

Northeastern Math Center
Half-hour and hour-long appointments provide guidance in algebra, precalculus, or calculus.

Available to: All NU undergraduates only
Location: 540B Nightingale
Type of Tutor: Math majors and graduate students
For appointments: http://neumath.mywconline.com

CPS partners with smartthinking to offer online tutoring, synchronous or asynchronous, in many different subjects such as writing, reading, basic math through multivariate calculus, business, biology, chemistry, and physics.

Available to: All CPS students who have access to CPS Blackboard
Location: All-online, synchronous and asynchronous
Type of Tutor: 90% have a Master’s or Doctoral degree in their field
For appointments: http://smartipantz.perceptis.com/neu/content/showcontent.aspx?id=255

If you have any questions concerning available academic support options or requests in an area not covered by these services, please e-mail the CPS Tutor Coordinator, Ori Fienberg, at o.fienberg@neu.edu.