

Northeastern University

College of Professional Studies

FALL 2014 VIRTUAL FACULTY CONFERENCE AGENDA

"SHIFTING THE PARADIGM"

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9, 2014

From the Sheraton Boston Hotel

- 10:00 a.m. -10:30 a.m. Log in to the link provided to you in your registration confirmation. Check for hand-outs on the Faculty Conference page. A link to hand-outs will be provided to you in your registration confirmation.
- 10:30 a.m. -12:00 p.m. Morning Program
Welcome from Dean Dr. John LaBrie and Senior Associate Dean Dr. John Caron Keynote Address
"How do the "big ideas" in education translate to classroom practice?"
Dr. Tracy Penny Light, Executive Director of the Centre for Student Engagement and Learning Innovation, Thompson Rivers University, Canada
- 12:00 p.m. -1:00 p.m. Luncheon Roundtables
Join your Northeastern colleagues in inspiring roundtable discussions, each led by a Northeastern University faculty or staff member. Virtual participants will be hosted at a roundtable led by Dr. Joe Griffin, Project Management faculty who will discuss: How do we integrate experiential learning in to online courses?
- 1:15 p.m. -2:15 p.m. Integrating Case Studies in to Online Pedagogy: Four Perspectives
A panel moderated by Dr. Teresa Goode, Leadership faculty; Dr. Chris Unger, Education faculty; Dr. Julia Ivy, Leadership faculty; and Dr. Mary Thompson-Jones, Global Studies faculty and Abdulrahman Alqahtani, graduate student. This session will explore the value and experience of case study with approaches in various disciplines.
- 2:25 p.m. -2:55 p.m. Integrating Experiential Learning into Online Pedagogy
with Ellen Stoddard, Director of Cooperative Education and Joanne Goldstein, Associate Vice President Workforce Development and Employer Engagement

Dean LaBrie's evening address will be videotaped and posted on the Faculty Conference website after the conference.