INTRO TO AFRICAN STUDIES

WHEN
M W Th
9:15 am – 10:20am

AFRS 1101
Professor Panford
CRN: 37170

DESCRIPTION: Uses a multidisciplinary approach to offer an introduction and overview the African continent, emphasizing Sub-Saharan Africa. Africa, “the cradle of humankind,” is a vast, complex continent of diverse peoples that has fascinated observers and evoked multiple images. Course materials aim to provide contemporary African perspectives and analyses that offer students an opportunity to acquire and interpret broad knowledge about the continent.