KNOW YOUR IX

10 Facts About Title IX

I. IT’S NOT JUST ABOUT SPORTS
Title IX is the landmark 1972 federal civil rights law that prohibits sex discrimination in education.

II. IT’S NOT JUST ABOUT FEMALES
Male and gender nonconforming students are also protected under Title IX.

III. SEXUAL VIOLENCE IS NOT TOLERATED
Sexual violence is not tolerated at Northeastern. Incidents of sexual violence should be reported to Northeastern Public Safety Division (NUPD) or Office of Institutional Diversity and Inclusion (OIDI).

IV. NORTHEASTERN IS PROACTIVE
Northeastern is proactive in making the campus safe and free of sex discrimination and sexual violence.

V. NORTHEASTERN HAS SYSTEMS IN PLACE
The policy and procedure for handling cases of sexual violence are outlined in the Code of Student Conduct and the Title IX Policy.

VI. A PLAN FOR SAFETY
Students who experience sexual violence have a right to referrals to counseling on and off campus, relocation to a different residence hall, and a change in academic schedule.

VII. NO CONTACT ORDERS
Northeastern can issue a no-contact order throughout the conduct process and afterwards as appropriate.

VIII. CONDUCT HEARINGS
All OSCCR cases are treated confidentially and an informational meeting with OSCCR staff is available to discuss any complaint.

IX. RETALIATION IS PROHIBITED
Any intentional or attempted act against a person who in good faith makes a report, serves as a witness or participated in an investigation or hearing is a violation of the Code of Student Conduct.

X. TITLE IX COORDINATOR
