First Semester Academic Advising Appointment

- Begin to plan and shape your time in CSSH, and take the first steps on your academic journey
  - Academic program (combined major? minor?)
  - NUpath (requirements fulfilled? remaining?)
  - How many years to graduation (four? five?)
  - Co-ops (one? two? three?)
  - Internships
  - NUterm
  - Dialogues of Civilizations and/or study abroad
  - Course planning for spring registration
  - Lifetime Learning Membership

- Second semester academic advising appointment in the spring term for more specific graduation timeline
Lifetime Learning Membership

Your advisors are a key part of your journey. With their guidance, you’ll chart an academic path that meets your goals.

• Tuition discounts, grants, and eliminated admissions barriers are just a few ways the following options can personalize your pathway:

  o Double Husky Scholarship
  o Edge Grant
  o Parent & Family Scholarship
  o PlusOne Programs
  o Accelerated Entry
  o 3+3

Visit northeastern.edu/lifetimelearning for more information!
Co-op Timeline

First Year
- Take foundation classes in major and NUpath, maybe in a minor
- Build your resume through volunteer work, internships, part-time jobs, student activities, NUterm courses, or a Dialogue of Civilizations

Second Year
- Take the co-op preparation course either first or second semester
- During the class begin searching, applying, and interviewing for co-op jobs for the next semester

Two six-month co-op cycles:
- January - June (Spring and Summer 1)
- July - December (Summer 2 and Fall)

The option for 4 year/2 co-op, 5 year/3 co-op, or 1 or no co-op is your choice, but planning is required.

In the fall, your advisor will also be visiting your 1-credit department 1000 first-year seminar course to present on:

- A refresher of what academic advising can help with
- Academic opportunities available to you
- Your major’s requirements and your degree audit
- Which spring courses you’ll be pre-registered for
- How to search for spring 2018 classes
- How to know your assigned day/time that you can begin to register for a given semester
- How to register for spring 2018 and future semesters
Degree Requirements

- NUpath: Completed by all students in all majors at NU
- Major Requirements
- Electives
- Remaining classes needed to meet minimum hours for graduation
- Minor(s)
- Specific to your department
- NUpath courses may also count as major requirements

128 Semester Hours
Your Degree Audit

- Highlights all major, NUpath, and minor requirements
- Reflects progress towards your degree
- Records all transfer and AP/IB/GCE credits
- Helps you choose and track courses every semester

Transfer and Advanced Credit

You should not enroll in any course for which transfer or AP or IB or GCE credit has or may be granted.

You have one academic semester to finalize all previous transfer and AP/IB/GCE coursework on your NU record.

Note: AP Scores must come directly from CollegeBoard.com

All final transcripts and/or score reports not yet submitted should be sent to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Mailing info can be found on their website under the FAQs tab.

Check your email for any transfer credit to-dos and email transfercredit@northeastern.edu with any questions.

Do NOT make changes to your fall 2017 schedule without consulting your Academic Advisor!
In the days preceding the start of the semester you’ll be prompted to do “I AM HERE” to confirm your plans to attend NU that term. If you do not complete I AM HERE, you will have your schedule purged.

When you log into myNEU during I AM HERE, you’ll be prompted to complete it right away. Click “Review/Confirm Class Schedule” to get started.

Once you complete I AM HERE, log out of myNEU and wait a minute in order for your other tabs to be restored.
myNEU Student Portal: Tips and Tricks

- Course Catalog lists every course that could be offered
- Schedule of Classes lists every class that will be offered
- Use Course Registration to add or drop courses
- Remain on track for graduation by running your degree audit regularly
- Schedule to meet with your advisor on the Appointment Calendar

How will you #BeYOUatNU?

“I don’t want you to fit into a mold that I create. I want you to create your own journey.”
Joseph E. Aoun, President, Northeastern University

No two students are the same; their paths shouldn’t be either. Each journey is unique—just like you—and we look forward to supporting you on your Northeastern adventure.

Orientation is just the beginning. As you prepare to forge this new path, think about where you've come from, where you’re headed, and how we can help you get there.

Wear the t-shirt to the President’s Convocation on September 5, complete with the word that best describes how you will #BeYOUatNU in the years to come.
“The first thing I want to say to you who are students, is that you cannot afford to think of being here to receive an education: you will do much better to think of being here to claim one.”

- Adrienne Rich, 1977
Fall 2017 First Pages

First Pages is required of all incoming students. First-Year Writing (ENGW1111) and other classes will use the First Pages book as a common discussion point throughout the fall.

Author Bryan Stevenson will be speaking on Tuesday, September 5
