Public Interest/Human Rights Report 2010
Prof. BROOK K. BAKER

Publications, Policy papers/analysis, Newspaper articles:

Jennifer Cohn & Brook K. Baker, Obstacles and Opportunities on the Road to Universal Access to ARVs, 7 Current HIV/AIDS Reports 161-167(2010).

Brook K. Baker, ACTA – Risks of Intermediary Liability to Access to Medicines (June 2010)

http://www.healthgap.org/trips/viiv_analysis.htm

Brook K. Baker, Practice-Based Learning: Emphasizing Practice and Offering Critical Perspectives on the Dangers of “Co-op”tation (draft 2010)

Presentations, Expert Consultations, and Trainings:

Improving Access to Essential Medicines by Implementing the WTO August 30 2003 Decision: Challenges and Opportunities, UNDP, Canadian HIV/AIDS Legal Network, UNICEF, 17 February 2010, New York City

U.S. Campaigns for Universal Access to HIV/AIDS Prevention, Treatment and Care, Health Research Exchange Northeastern University, 19 February 2010

Consultation: Public Interest Analysis of the Global IP Enforcement Agenda, American University Washington College of Law, 23 February 2010, Washington D.C.

World Bank – CSO Health Roundtable: Continuing the Dialogue on Health toward 2015, 8 April 2010, Brussels, Belgium

Panel: AIDS Exceptionalism, Health Aid Efficiency Seminar, 13 April 2010, Yale University, New Haven, CT

Panel: Film Series: Have You Heard from Johannesburg – Road to Resistance and Hell of a Job, 5 May 2010, Boston, Massachusetts
Expert Speaker: Roundtable: Funding for health systems, Seminar: Right to Health: Challenges in funding, health systems, and universal access in development policies, 1 June 2010, Madrid, Spain

Faculty Discussion, Responding to the Threat of Flat-Funding for Global AIDS, Northeastern U. School of Law, Sept. 13, 2010
