BAGGAGE

- : The airlines have very strict policies with regards to luggage, which are subject to change without notice. They have the right to charge for and/or refuse overweight, oversized or additional luggage. In order to be prepared on the day of departure, all travelers must reconfirm luggage allowances and restrictions directly with the airlines. You may phone Qantas Airways at 800-227-4500 or find information on the Qantas website.
- : Baggage policy is determined at the time of ticket issuance; not when payment is received.
- : For current information on what can and cannot be brought onto an aircraft, please refer to the TSA website.
- : Federal law forbids the carriage of certain hazardous materials, such as aerosols, fireworks, and flammable liquids, aboard the aircraft. If you do not understand these restrictions, contact your airline or go to the FAA website.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- : All U.S. citizens traveling abroad must possess valid travel documents, which includes a passport and, possibly, a visa. Different situations require different documents. You do not need to be in possession of these documents to make flight reservations, however, it is your responsibility to make sure that you have the proper documentation prior to travel.
- : Most countries require that passports be valid for a certain length of time beyond your intended stay. Please make sure that you are aware of the restrictions of the country or countries you are visiting.
- : Any costs associated with the failure to have proper travel documentation (including but not limited to the loss of the entire ticket cost) is solely the responsibility of the traveler. You can familiarize yourself with the specific document requirements for the country(s) you are visiting by contacting the U.S. Department of State (www.travel.state.gov) or by contacting your N.U.in Assistant Director.

- : Most standard meal requests (i.e. vegetarian, kosher, low-fat, lactose free, etc.) can be honored on long-haul flights if they are requested at least 72 hours prior to departure.
- : Allergen-free meals and/or an allergen-free environment are not available on all services.
