Housing Accommodations

Students will stay overnight in an on-campus residence hall. Towels, bedding, and meals are all provided for N.U.in students. Students can drop off their bags in their room at check-in. Housing is provided for N.U.in students only, and only for the first day of the program, we are unable to accommodate early check-ins. Parents and guests will only have programming for Day One of PDO. For suggestions for places to stay in Boston, please see our Undergraduate Admissions visit website.

What to Bring

◊ Comfortable clothes and shoes for two days
◊ Water bottle
◊ Toiletries
◊ Documentation of all AP or IB score reports and transcripts for all college transfer credit in addition to submitting official documentation to Admissions (if applicable)
◊ Optional: small fan (some residence halls do not have air conditioning), athletic wear (if students would like to participate in evening sporting activities)

Towels, bedding, and all meals are provided for N.U.in participants during PDO.
