

Dear Seattle Learner,

Our campus procedures have changed in response to the COVID-19 health & safety guidelines and requirements. As we welcome you back to campus, we want to make sure you are aware of these new protocols before visiting campus.

Before Arriving on Campus

- Complete the University Expectations for Return to Campus Attestation
- Review the “The Seattle Campus Safe Return Guide”
- Download SafeZone from either the iTunes App Store, the Google Play App Store, the Windows Store
- Before arriving on campus each day, complete the Daily Wellness Check. The tool will indicate whether you are cleared to come to campus, whether you should stay home, and provide next steps if you report symptoms of COVID-19.
- Bring your Husky ID & both access cards.
- Check the dynamic scheduling tool in the Student Hub to see which class sessions you are scheduled to attend in-person and which class sessions you are scheduled to attend remotely.
- If you’re scheduled to be in the classroom or if you’d like to come on campus to study, make a reservation through Acuity. The Acuity reservation system will open a week before campus reopens. Reservations can be made up to one week in advance throughout term. Reservations are for the entire day.
- You may eat on campus in dedicated spaces. You are required to provide your own utensils and flatware.

Checking in to Campus

- Properly wear a face mask that meets the standards of the Northeastern face covering protocol.
- Report to the check-in station at 225. (The 401 check-in station does not open until September 9 at 5pm). You will need to show you have your mask on, that you have your ID and access card, that you’ve completed the Daily Wellness Check, and that you’ve checked into SafeZone. You will get a quick temperature check before entering campus.

What to Expect on Campus

- The coffee & tea service has been suspended but the filtered water units are still accessible in each break area.
- You are required to follow the directional signage and adhere to the stated entrance and exit door signage.
- Stay to the right in all hallways and stairs.
- Maintain a 6-foot healthy distance from others.
- Wash your hands frequently for at least 20 seconds.
- There will be an abundance of hand sanitizer and cleaning products accessible to all staff, faculty, and students throughout campus.
- Clean all surfaces before touching them.
- Protect the Pack! #ProtectthePackNU
