

Information Disposal Requirements

Revised: 6/13/17

Type of information...	Disposal recommendation...
Printed materials containing personally-identifiable information; (first and last name, or first initial last name, along with any one or more of the following: social security number, MA Driver License number, MA State ID number, financial account numbers, PIN numbers	Shred or drop in locked shred bin Locked shred bins and document shredding service is available for a fee from preferred vendors CINTAS and SHRED PRO. For more information, see the Purchasing Website, at: http://www.purchasing.neu.edu NOTICE Massachusetts law imposes penalties for failure to properly dispose of personal information.
FERPA-protected student records, Protected Health Information (PHI), physical access control records
System specifications, System Architectural Diagrams, Network Diagrams, IP address records, Security process descriptions, Risk mitigation solutions, Security/protective control descriptions, Program listings, Obsolete software licenses, Obsolete proprietary information
Financial records, account records, non-public personal financial information
Items marked CONFIDENTIAL, COMPANY CONFIDENTIAL, NU CONFIDENTIAL, PROPRIETARY, NON-DISCLOSURE, TRADE SECRET, etc.
Your personal, private, confidential information, or obsolete intellectual content
Obsolete performance and compensation records, payroll records, benefit information
Unreadable paper, miscellaneous papers/notes containing non-sensitive information	Trash can or recycle bin
Computer system units, hard disk drives, storage media/devices of any description (floppy, tape, CD, etc.)	All storage media to be reallocated or donated must first be erased. Media to be discarded must be erased or placed in a shredding bin located in Richards Hall, or 177Hun. Refer to Asset Disposition Procedures http://www.northeastern.edu/facilities/policies-forms/

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Improper disposal of information can create serious legal, financial and reputational risk. If there are any questions about information disposal, please contact your manager or OIS@neu.edu.